ST JOHN'S
HIGH SCHOOL

Hen,

Hello Maud how are you?
To one of the craziest guys in the class. To my fellow
"Bozoo brothers", to my fellow
Mary lover. See I hope we have lots of fun together and stay friends always.
Good luck with Ziggie.

ST. JOHN HIGH SCHOOL

JACKSON, MICHIGAN

DEDICATION

Because without you there would be no school spirit, we dedicate the 1964 Yearbook, which is based on spirit, to the 700 persons who rightly deserve it—you the students of St. John High School.

Separately you are 700 individuals, collectively you are one body—a student body with an aim. Your aim is to be educated that you may serve God, your fellowmen, and yourselves in the best way possible. Because of this common aim, you, the students of St. John's share many other things—your religion, your education, your recreation. These are the things that we hope this volume of the Yearbook has captured and will preserve for years to come.

Foreword

This 1964 Yearbook has been published with but one objective: to capture a year between its covers. While we know that life at St. Johns High School is a multitude of realities which are intangible to be related in black and white, perhaps in some small way we can preserve the friendships which we all hold so dearly. If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the year just gone, it will have served its purpose.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students, your new Bluebook.

LEARNING

These are learning faces. Those expressions of intense concentration. The exasperating effort exerted through the long hours spent in acquiring knowledge. Hours spent in and out of class. Constantly pursuing that always demanding, ever evasive immediate goal—the black and white parchment, called a diploma.

Grateful

Mother Mary Frederick

As a superb example of Catholic leadership, guidance and education, we present the faculty of St. John High School.

Their leadership has been characterized by a firm but just enforcement of discipline, a personal interest in each student and his particular problems, and an undying enthusiasm with which they have guided us these past years.

As we step forth into an uncertain future, we thank them for instilling in us a deep faith in God, ourselves, and life; and for giving us knowledge, inspiration and self control that is necessary for success.

May God Bless you always.

Religion

Tom Shaugnessy and Bill Devine collect questionaires from Senior girls' guidance class.

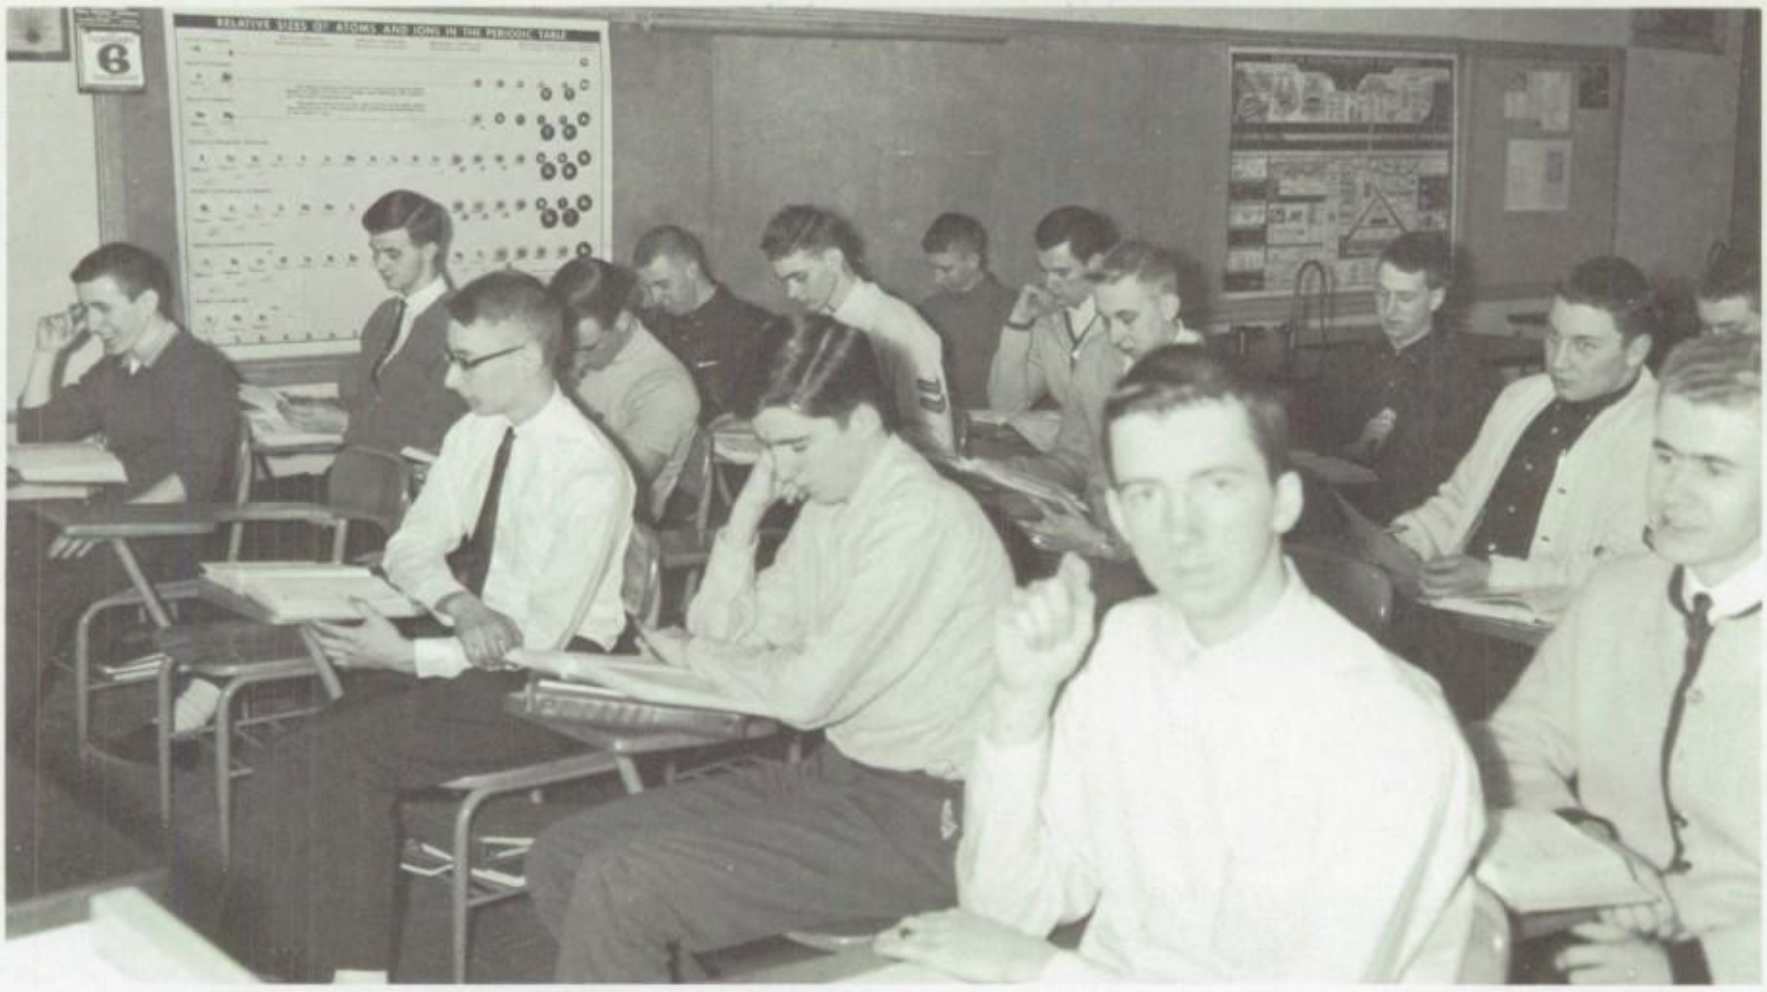
Fr. Labiak instructs the Freshman girls' Religion class.

Freshmen Mary Coyne, Mary Rainey, Marlene Newman, and Joe Kemmer explain the speed of light in their General Science class.

Sciences

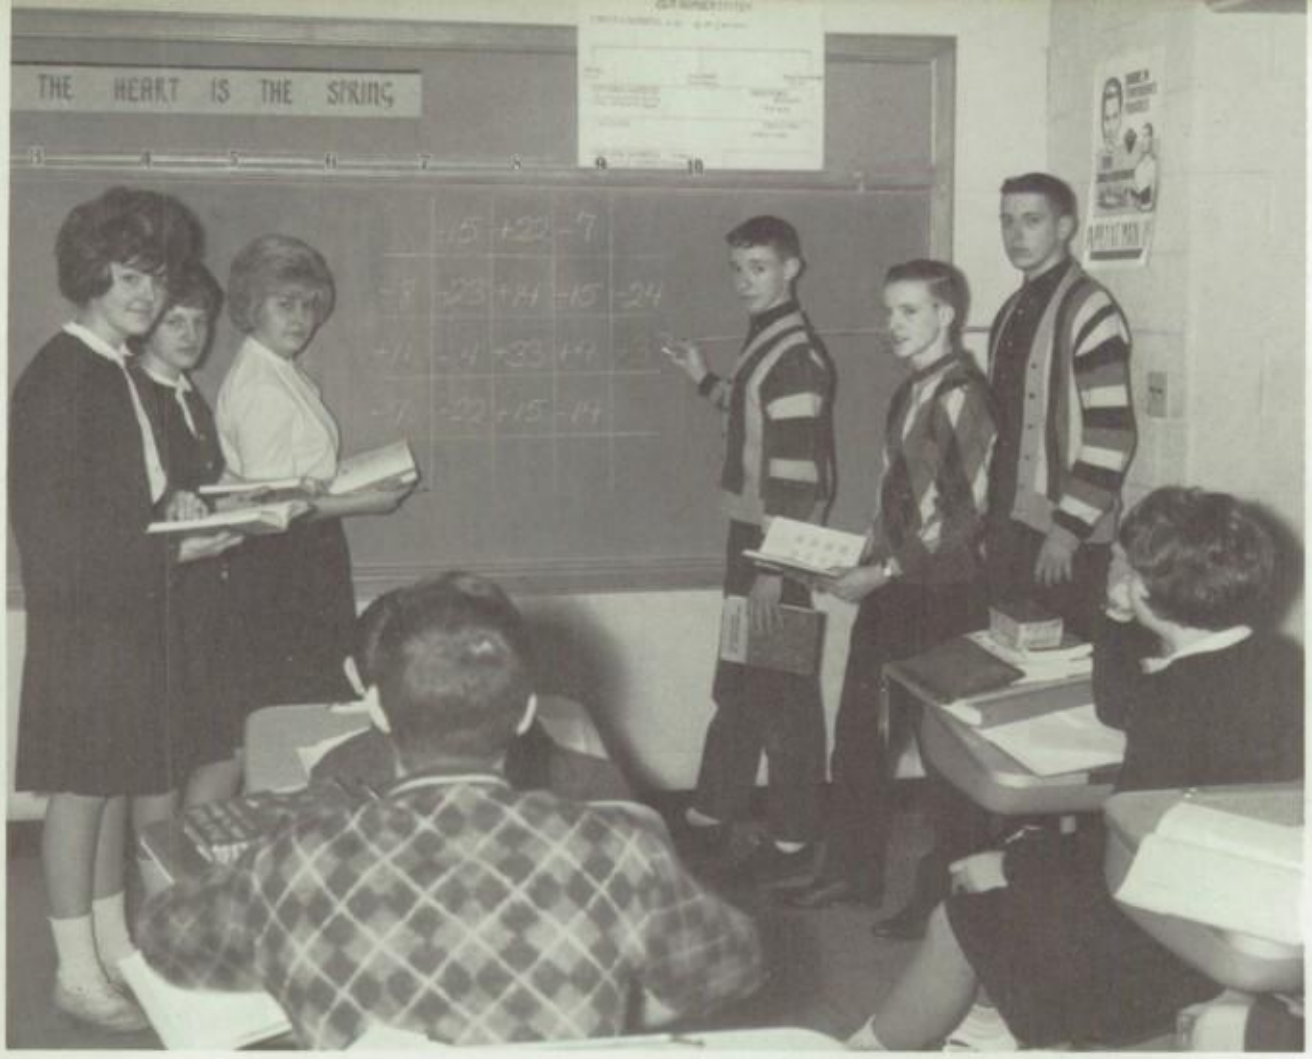
Health, a new course this year, is taught by Mr. Perticone. Doesn't this group look healthy!



Jerry Driscoll doesn't seem to know the answer in Physics class.

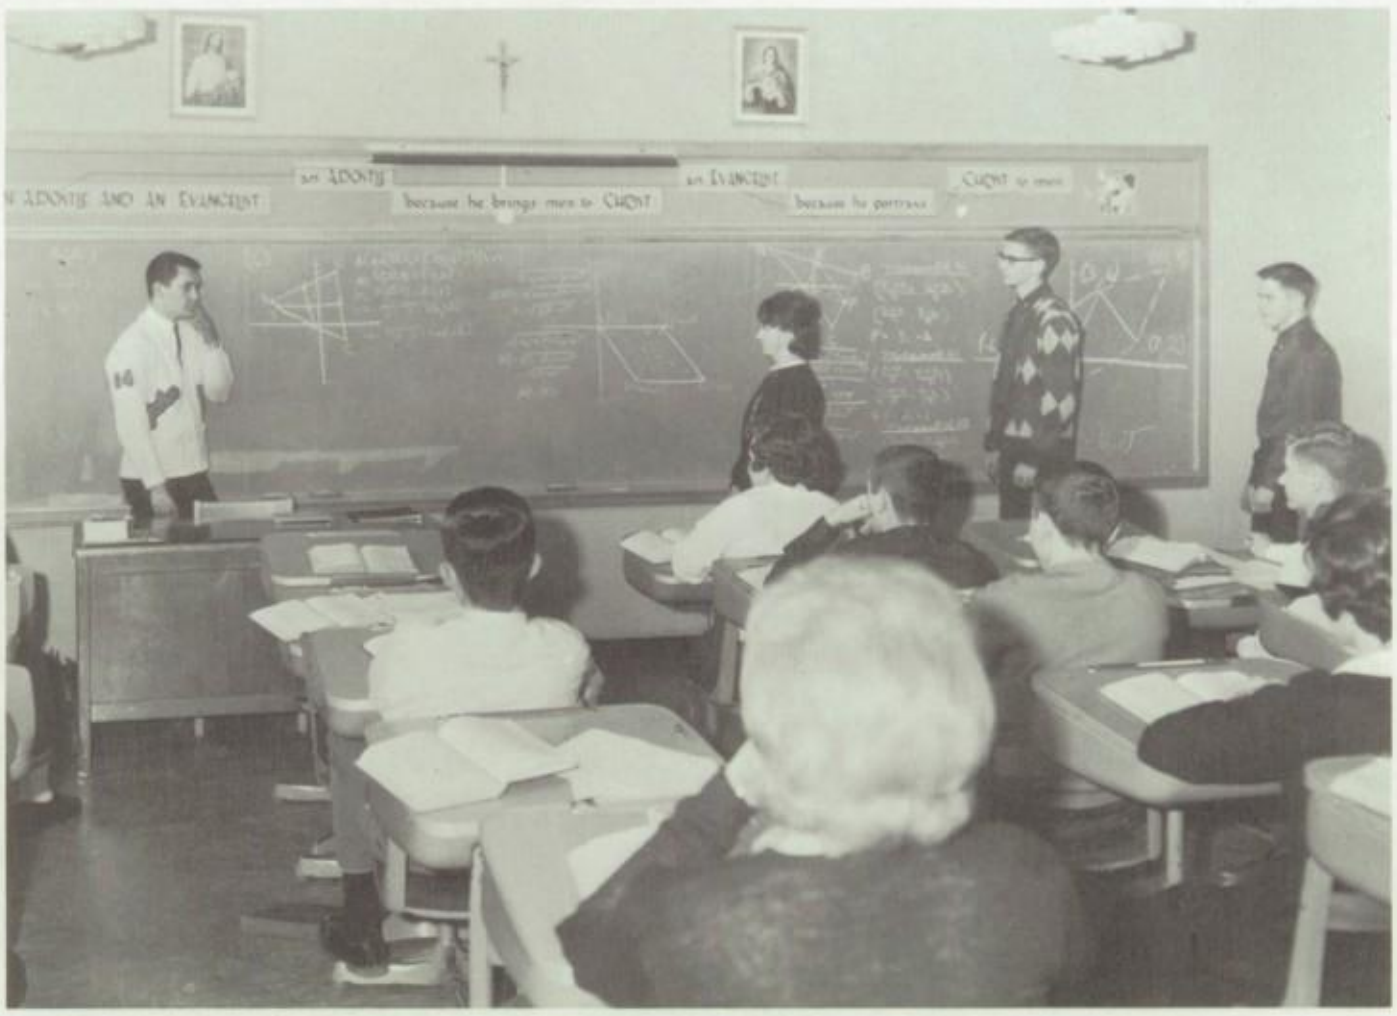
Mike Smith, Denny Swain, and Greg Russo observe the process of osmosis of the onion root.

John Wenkus and Tom Deschaine experiment with chemicals during lab period.



Eileen McCann, Mary Benn, Donna Tyluki, Bob Nichols, Dave Fought, and Gary Grable demonstrate the magic of a magic square.

Mathematics



"OOPS! I made a mistake," says John Chrisman as Peggy Bacon, Pat Eagle, and Tom Swope wait to explain their Math problems.

Chuck Lefere exhibits his teaching ability to students of American History as Annie Martin and Bill Tuttle locate the territories discussed.

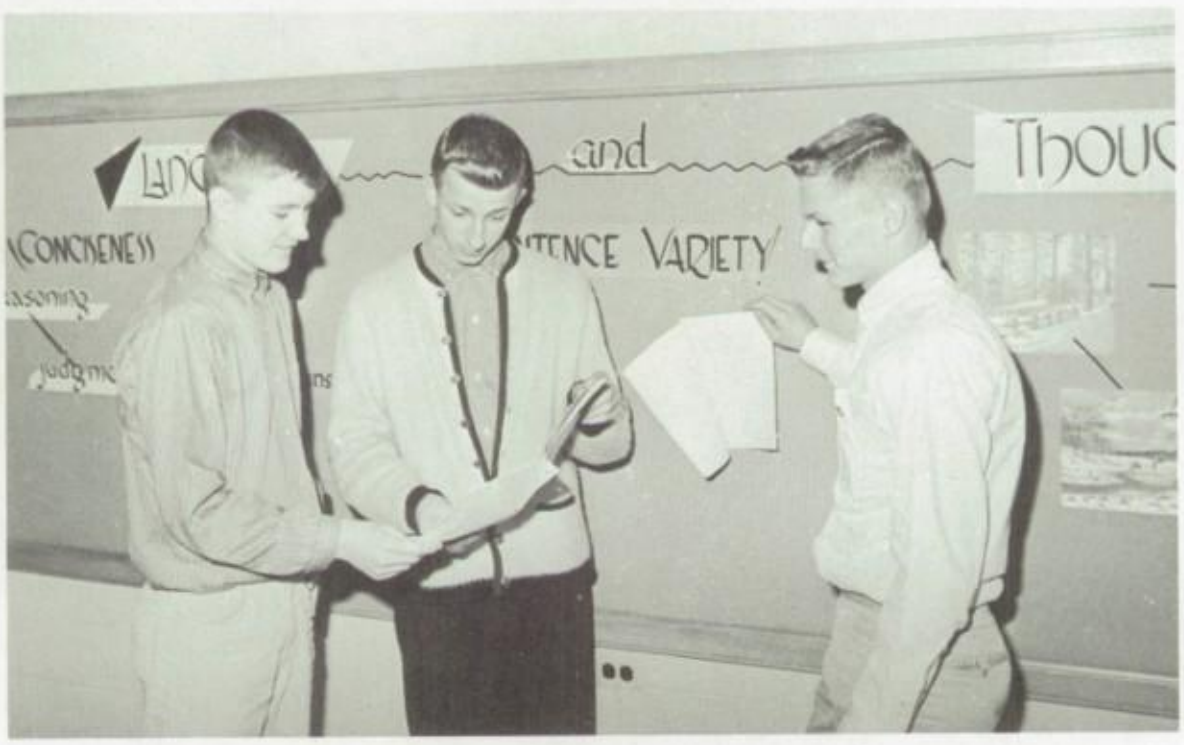
Senior boys take notes and watch slides in Comparative Government class.

Social Studies

Barb Ciochon and Monica Henman model their medieval costumes to Sister Rosary's World History class.

English

It's deep, man, think Jim Gurr, Mike Dominick, and Tom Shaugnessy, listening to a Macbeth record.

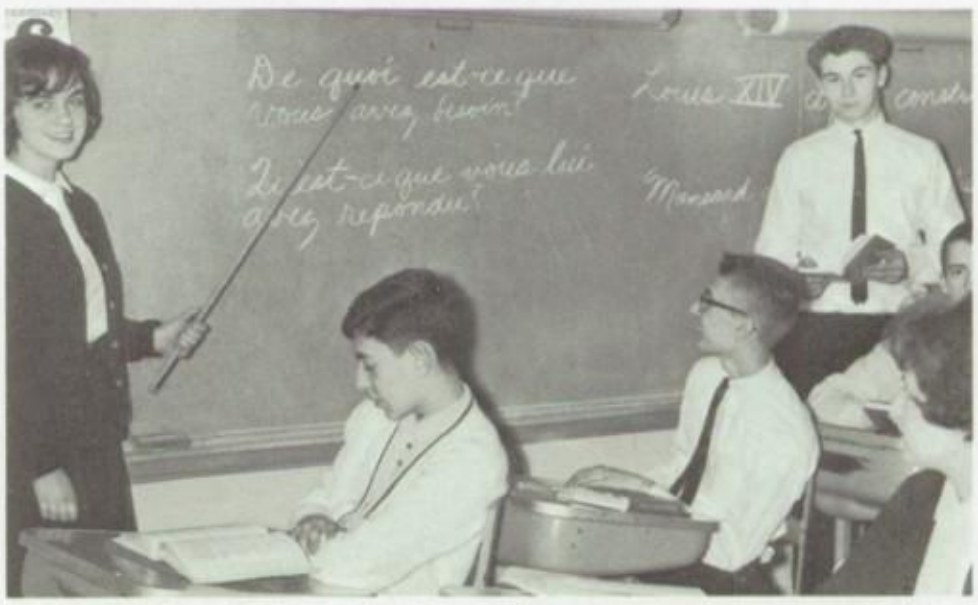


"But it's just like mine," says Jim Lievense to Buffer Lefere in comparing themes, as Dick Soltis realizes the same.

Bob Kaems and Debbie O'Dowd illustrate sentence structure to their classmates.

Foreign Languages

Mike Timmons, Cathy Rakowski, Ed Peplinskin, and Cindy Flintoff listen to some recordings in Spanish to increase their knowledge.



Marianne Baker and Mike McCormick take time out to show the second year French class what they know.

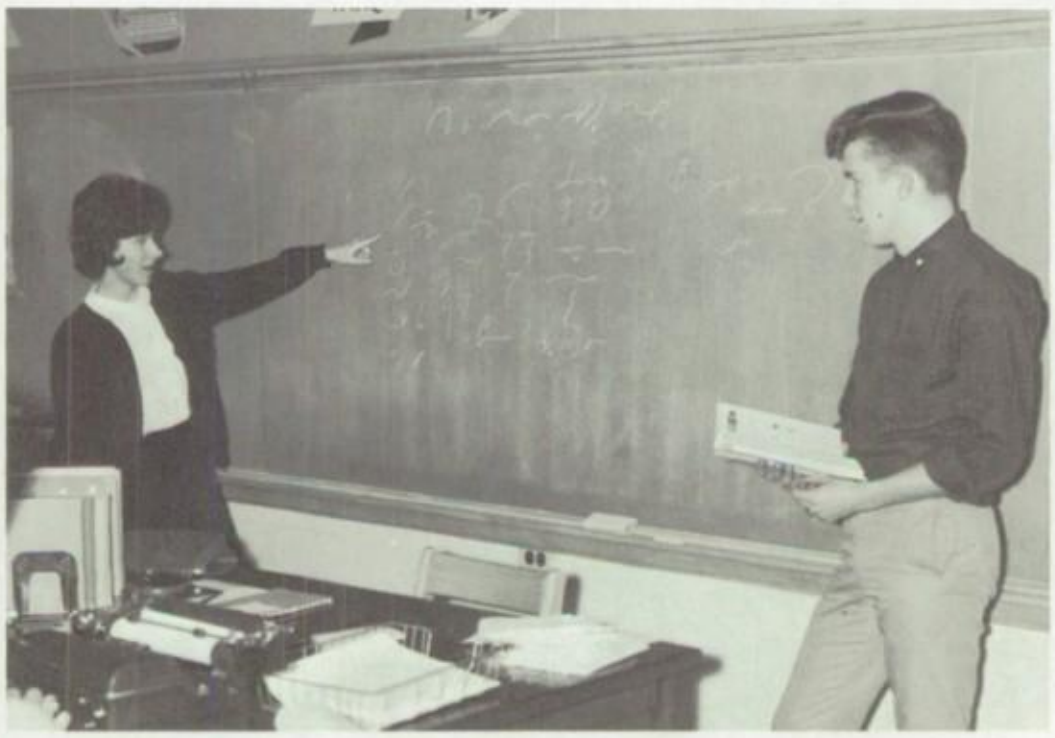
Mary Ann Chomic reads a letter in shorthand class while the others wait their turn.

Commercial Arts

Students here keep books, but it is not a library. It is a bookkeeping class.

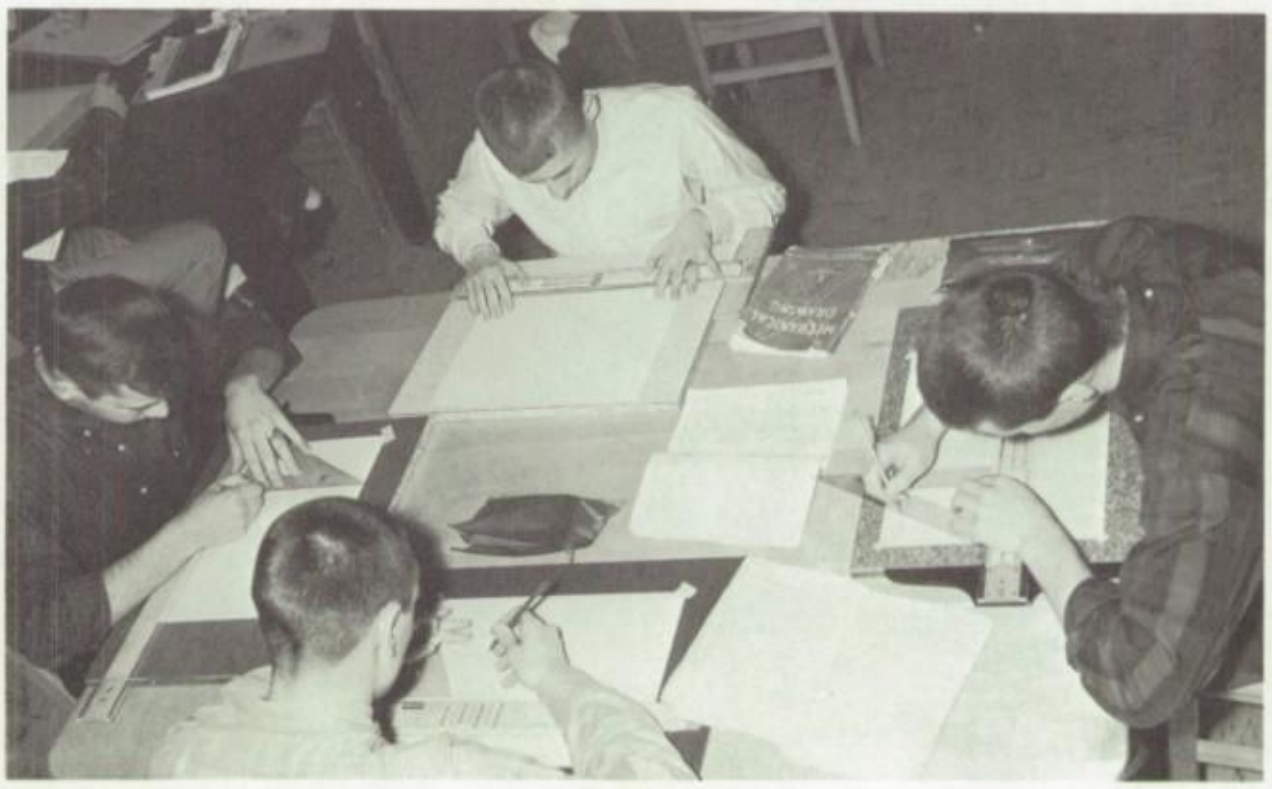
Clickety clack go the typewriters in Mrs. Swartout's first year typing class as the students strive to raise their speed.

Mary Ann Miller, Mary Ann Booth, and Mary Wasielewski think that "a stitch in time saves nine."



Pat Tomasik explains the day's work in Notehand class as Jim Zuehlke lends assistance.

Electives



Chuck Lefere, Gary Crowley, Dave Dorian, and Larry Bungart display their drawing ability in drafting.

LEADING

The Seniors, recognizing the fact that they have the privilege and obligation of setting a pattern for the underclassmen, put forth their best efforts to formulate and to follow the rules and regulations drawn up by the governing body of the school, the Faculty, and Student Council. The graduates of 1964 sincerely hope that students at St. Johns may always display such good examples of co-operation and initiative that the gift of Spirit shall always prevail.

Pep Club

Student Council

Homeroom representatives for the Student Council are: Seated—T. Crowley, J. Lefere, J. Chrisman, T. Duffey, J. Higgins, G. Crowley. Standing—J. Beale, P. Jordan, D. Mikelonis, N. Low, T. Cagney, J. Bretes, B. Devine, J. Fleming, E. McQuillan, K. Davivowicz, P. Winkler, D. Sullivan, J. Kemmer.

Organists

Faithful and obliging, the organists, Rosemary Chrapek and Betty Zalewski, answer the responses at daily Mass.

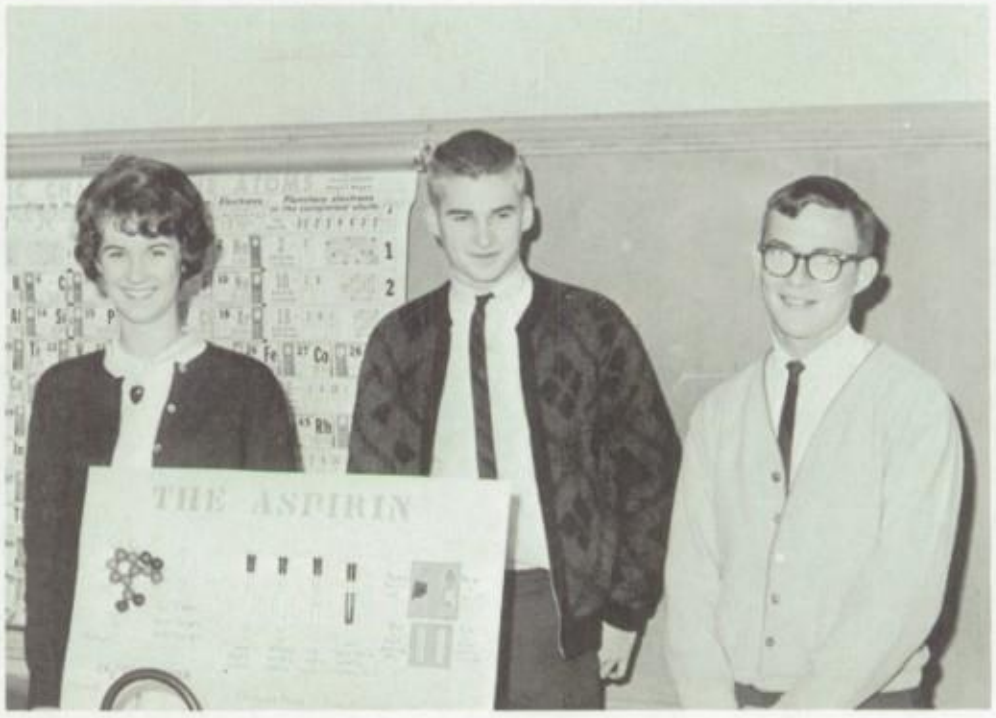
Choral

This year's choral group is better than ever with its 180 members. Their voices were heard in many familiar places singing Christmas and spring songs alike.

Math Club

Math Club officers are: David Thorrez, Kathy Zuehlke, and Fred Hawley.

Chemistry Club



This year's Chemistry Club officers are: Nancy Low, Mike Winkler, and Tom Yocum.

Physics Club

Officers of the three Physics Clubs are: Pat Eagle, Aline Cvengros, Mike McCormick, Jim Wilson, Mary Ellen Kramic, and Jim Gurr.

Senior Altar Boys

Sodalty

National Honor Society

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the four distinguishing standards of the National Honor Society. The officers of the National Society are: Dave Thorrez, president; Nancy Sullivan, vice-president; Scott Rose, treasurer; Diane Paruch, secretary; and Cathy Rakowski, corresponding secretary.

The main activity sponsored by this organization was their annual dance, entitled "Moonlight and Roses."

Our National Honor Society moderator, Sister Carmella, has done a tremendous job in working to make the St. John Chapter what it is today.

Moonlight and Roses

Carleen Grzesek and Dave Thorrez, president of the National Honor Society, take tickets and greet guests at the door.

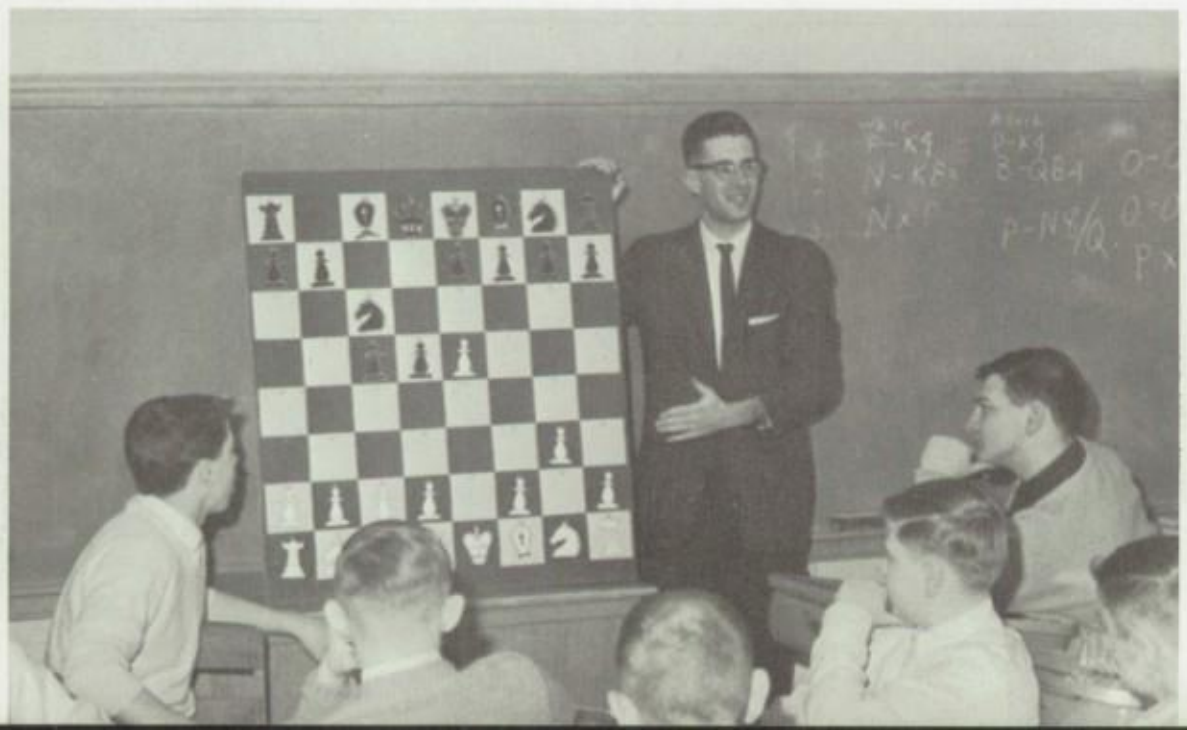
One of the main attractions of the Moonlight and Roses dance was the refreshment table.

Co-Editors, Tim Wrozek and Dave Thorrez, discuss the new issue with the rest of the members.

Spectrum

Another issue completed, Ron Sambaer and Diane Paruch are on their way to sell the Spectrum.



Chess Club

Joe McCarty shows some of the basic fundamentals of chess to the school's new organization.

Y.C.S.

The Y.C.S. groups discuss problems of youth. Some of the members seated are: Tom Shaugnessy, Anne Seckinger, Bill Devine, Mary Laberteoux, Kathy McDonough, Carol Lapinski, Aline Cvengros.

C.S.M.C.

Homeroom Representatives for C.S.M.C. are: Clara Raciboski, Jane Chrisman, Connie Bailey, Bob Owen, Aline Cvengros, Dave Mikolonis, Kathy McDonough, Michele Urbany, Ruth Lievense.

LIVING

The spirit of St. Johns is reflected in Living various student activities. Special projects such as freshmen initiation, dances, homecoming, and the prom could not be successful without the friendly co-operation and participation of the students and faculty.

When school days are over, the memories of these activities will linger as a challenge to cherish always the high ideals which characterize the Spirit of St. Johns.

Homecoming

'63

Peggy Bacon and Joe Massoglia

This year's Homecoming was an occasion that had a blissful meaning for all. For our high school it meant "victory" over Monroe Catholic Central, 38-6. To some lucky seniors, namely Connie Nichols, queen, and Mike Dwyer, king, it meant regal honors. With their attendants, Peggy Bacon and Joe Massoglia, Anne O'Connell and Dave Britton, Annie Lefere and Jim Gurr, and Anne Bungart and Joe Fleming, they displayed jubilant pride with flashing smiles and words of thanks. Homecoming night again succeeded in making this pleasant tradition "one of those moments to remember." By alluring students and alumni alike in celebrating before and after the game it proved to be exciting for everyone.

Freshman initiation—A time for fun.

Welcome-Freshmen

The week of October 7-12 will be remembered by all the freshmen for a long time to come. This year, the Seniors tried something new and different. A few of the regulations established for the freshmen are as follows: All freshmen wore green ties or ribbons, addressed Seniors in the dignified manner of Mr. and Miss, and were extra courteous to the faculty.

The festivities were brought to a grand finale by the Freshman Initiation Dance. Hats off to the freshmen for presenting the true St. John's good sportsmanship.

Spirit is put to the test in the sportsmanship displayed by zealous players and enthusiastic spectators. This week, the spirit was put to the test and came out with a great reward—the Duffy Jug. Congratulations to the whole student body for the tremendous effort and school spirit which was displayed not only during Gael-Celt week, but throughout the entire season.

The Night of Nights - - -

A junior-senior prom is something special because it is the culmination of the year's expectancy. It is always the social event of the year—an event composed of many parts.

April 17, 1963, will always be remembered by the class of '64. This was the night the class presented their "Prelude to Summer," the theme for the prom of '63. The gym was transformed into a garland of beauty. The main parts of interest—a southern plantation, a grotto, and a summer pavilion, were all complete with flowers, trees, shrubbery, and all the other colorful indications of Spring.

The co-operation and participation that made this dance as great as it was, was the product of St. John spirit. And only the students can supply that spirit which is essential to any successful venture.

We could have danced all night.

Nancy Sullivan and Gary Crowley demonstrate their version of the twist.

Many couples take time out to chat during "Prelude to Summer."

- - - The Senior Prom

Chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. Meert also enjoyed the prom.

King and Queen of Hearts

Applauding his queen, Phil Krauz accentuates the moment Margaret Maes is crowned Queen of Hearts by Mr. Meert during How Big is Your Heart activities. The two seniors represent their class's unbroken pattern of giving their candidate royal success reigning over activities for the past four years. The profit made from these activities goes to the missions.

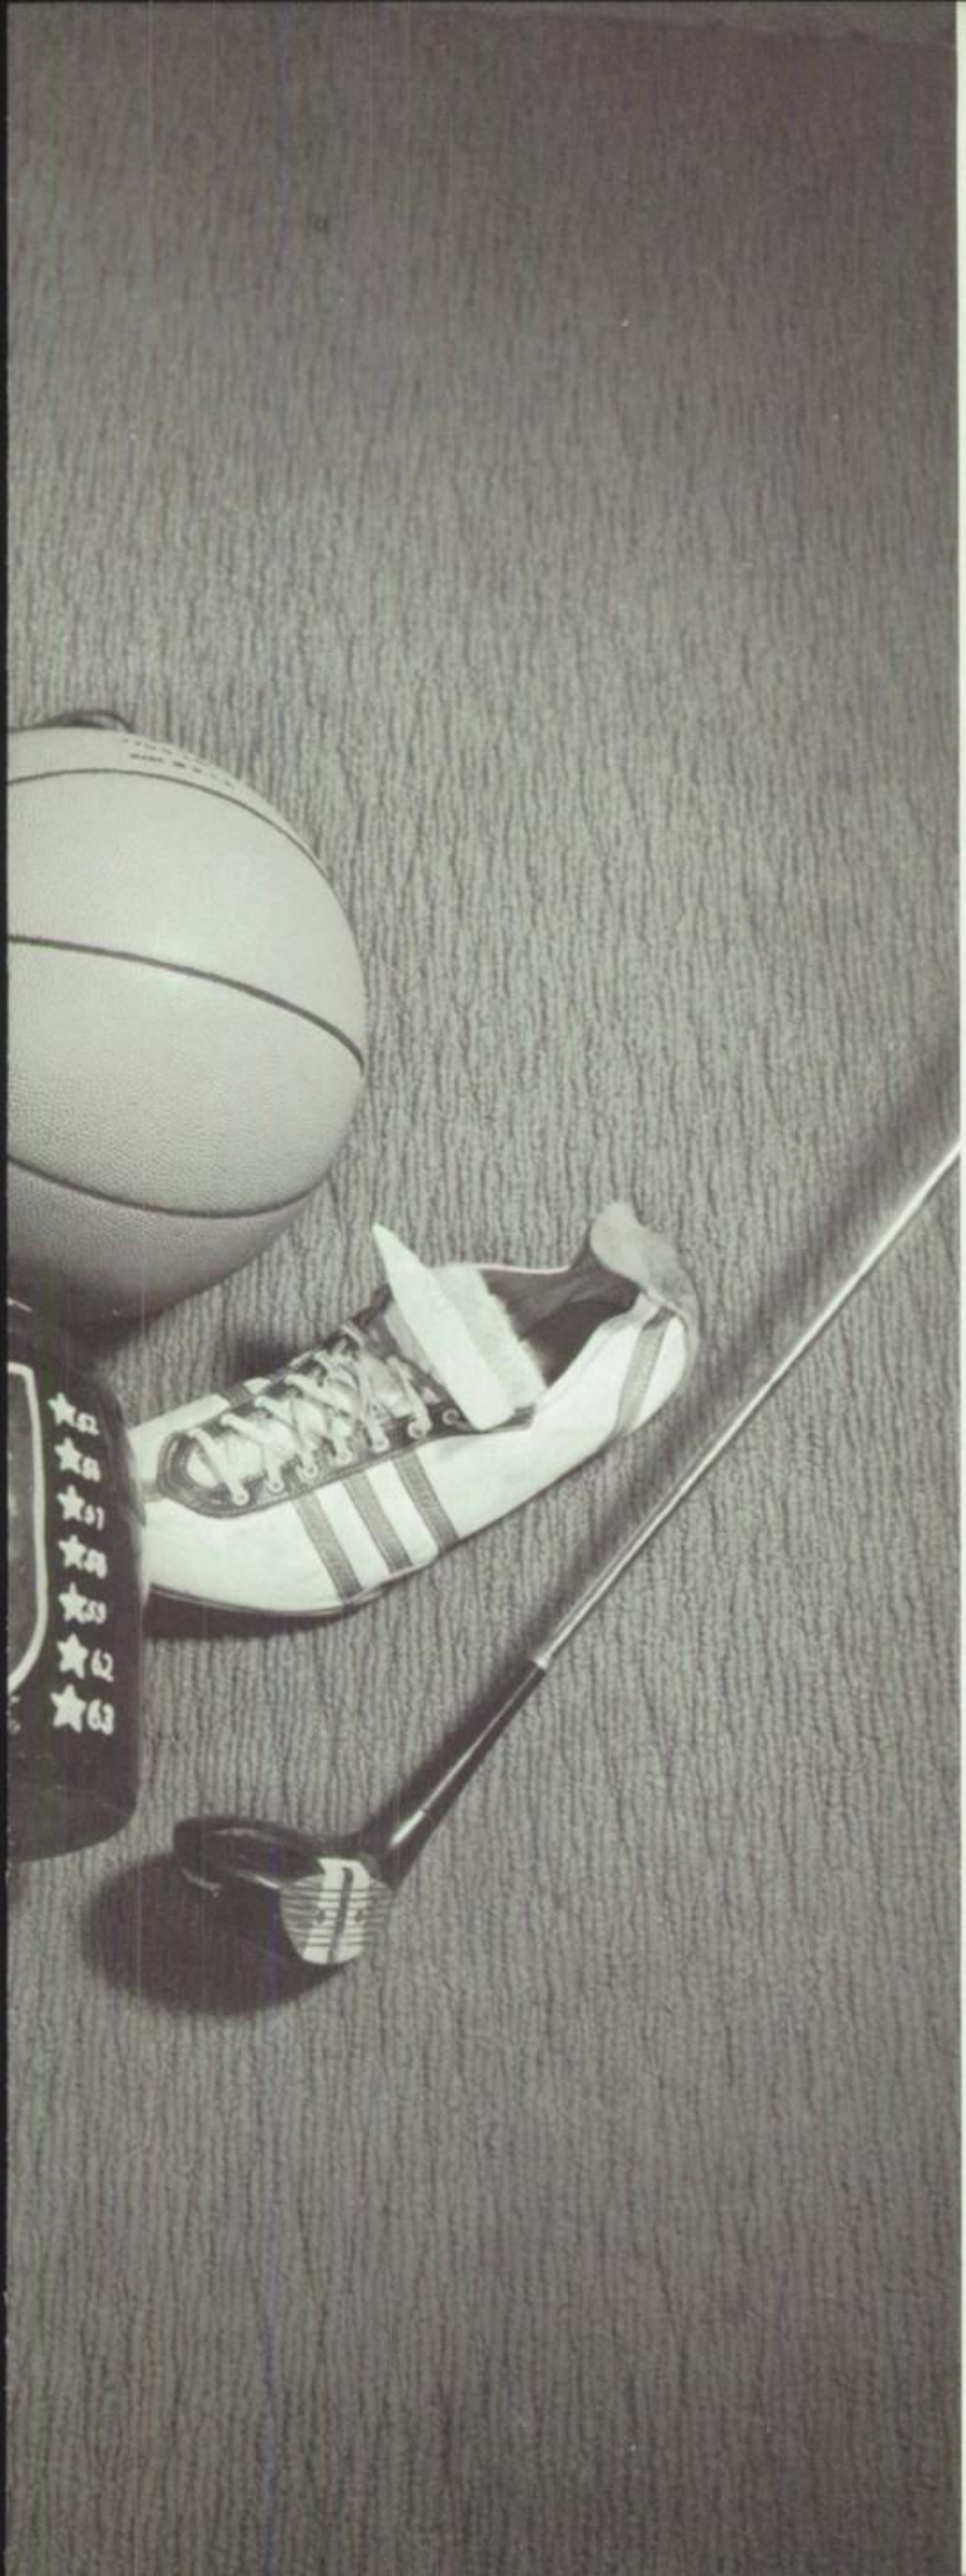
ST. JOHN



LOYALTY

The loyalty of a Gael is reflected in many ways, but it is especially seen in the training that goes on during the sport's seasons. Each and every player knows the rules and regulations that have been set for the team. The real test for him is to say no when he is faced with some decision weighing the importance of honesty with the coach and with St. John's. These boys set the example for the rest to follow, demonstrating the simple loyalty of a Gael.

1,100 fans saw St. Johns open its season on a 13-0 victory note. Tom Goodwin paced the Gaels with two TD's and the team ground out 208 yards, gaining some much sought after revenge from the 1962 tie.

The number 13 again proved lucky as the "Mighty Gaels" rolled over Charlotte 13-0. A solid offense paced by Tom Crowley and John Chrisman mouned 238 yards on the ground going to the air only twice for two completions. With an unprecedented display of defense, Charlotte could manage only one first down and 18 yards rushing.

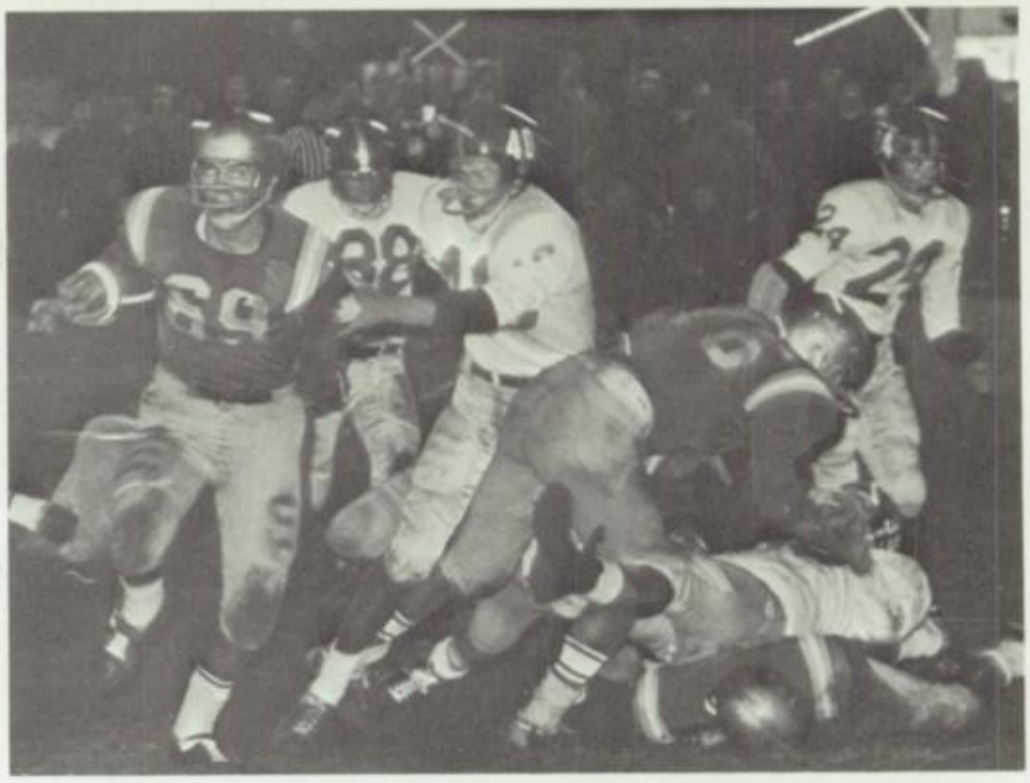
All-State end John Lefere snares one of many.

In a near perfect night, St. Johns solidly trounced double AA Sylvania 32-0. Again our ground game and a rock hard defense provided the keys. Limiting the Chieftons to only five plays in the second quarter and four in the third, the Gaels produced sprees of 14 and 18 points in the second and fourth, respectively, with the entire backfield scoring at least once.

Tom Crowley pumps for paydirt.

The Gaels rolled to their seventh victory against Michigan Center, 27-13. Coach Crowley used his entire squad with Tom Crowley scoring twice. Bill Devine and Tom Goodwin also tallied. Gary Crowley added the extra points, all in runs.

St. Johns bid for a perfect season died when underrated Wilson H. S. of St. Johns Michigan marched to a 13-13 tie. All-staters John Lefere and Tom Crowley produced our only scores, the latter climaxing a sensational fourth quarter rally.



Bursting through gap in Center line—Chrisman finds daylight.

Tom Goodwin steaks to his first touchdown against Okemos.

In one of the greatest games of Gael history, our team produced a 6-0 triumph over highly taunted Albion. 3,100 fans saw the score tipped in our favor with only one minute and twenty-nine seconds left in the game. Albion with its speedy halfbacks, had previously been averaging 33 points a game, but was unable to dent the Gael goal and was allowed one first down in the first half. Tom Crowley set up the winning margin by reeling off a nineteen yard sprint to the Albion five. Three plays later, with the ball resting on the one, Tom was again called on and burst through the middle for a most valuable six points.

The Gael defense which played such a prominent role in a perfect season bolstered by linemen; J. Bretes, J. Powers, P. Krauz, E. Crowley and J. Lefere, held the opposition to fewer points than any other team in the state.

Tom Crowley rambles around end for sizeable gain against Fenton.

A Homecoming crowd of 3,700 saw St. Johns thrash Monroe Catholic Central 38-6. Monroe, previously a powerhouse, could show little power against this stout Gael line. In rolling up its largest score the fans again saw a well-balanced attack of both offense and defense. John Lefere and Tom Crowley shared scoring honors with two touchdowns apiece, Bill Devine tallied once. "Rabs Raiders" climaxed a long drive with Howard Murphy slamming over from the two.

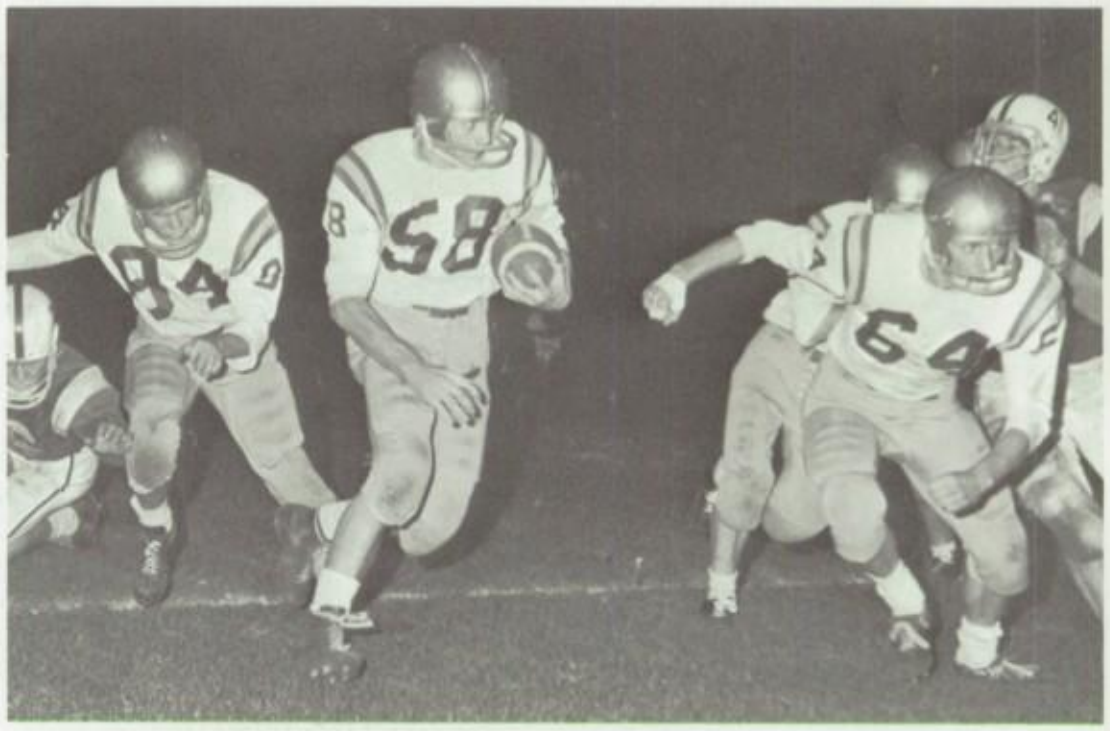
The "Mighty Gaels" offense exploded producing two points in the first half to overpower Fenton. Speedy Bill Devine, playing his first game at halfback, reeled off several fine gains and scored our first touchdown. From then on an outplayed and impassive Fenton could only watch the score mount as Crowley hit paydirt twice and John Lefere once, with Dick Dalton kicking two conversions.

Fullback John Chrisman finds it easy going through center of Sylvania line.

Bill Devine scampers around end.

Tom Goodwin "twists in."

THE POWERFUL GAELS RIPPED ST. MARY'S 33-0, and ended a forty-two year wait for an unbeaten season. The Gaels retained the Duffy Jug before 7,100 loyal fans, showing an all-out team effort. Tom Crowley, this year's leading ground gainer, paced the Gaels with two tallies, while John Chrisman and Tom Goodwin also hit paydirt. John Lefere also scored on a pass from Goodwin. Tom Crowley's run for an extra point, Lefere's extra-point catch, and Dick Dalton's conversion rounded off the scoring in handing the Celt's the biggest setback in modern history.



Gael lineman, Dave Dorian, in moment of glory as he intercepts pass from Monroe C.C.

Coach Crowley's Gaels get a chance to rest and make half-time adjustments.

"Hail To The Gaels!" The Mighty Gaels compiled their first unbeaten season in 42 years, playing their toughest schedule yet. With their fine coaching and tremendous team unity, it is no wonder the Gaels were victorious. Their desire to win and all-out effort will be a symbol of Gaels to come.

The Junior Varsity, under coach Dan Atkins, produced a record of four wins and two defeats. The "Little Gaels" followed in the steps of the varsity by defeating St. Marys by the score of 20-0 and proving that St. Johns will not lack talent in the coming years. Sparked by Gary Crowley's 41 points, the Blue and Gold chalked up their highest total in history in trouncing Mason 92-55. Gary's 41 points also erased the individual scoring record of 37 points. The Gaels meshed a brilliant 45% from the floor and completely outmuscled Mason the entire game. Coach Justine' Perticone's team was put to the test against powerful Class A as well as Class B teams, and their winning record was earned through teamwork.

St. John's, boasting a balanced scoring attack with plenty of individual talent, ended a fine season with a 13 won—5 lost record. The Gaels got off to a hustling start winning three in a row before bowing to Class A Albion by one point. The Gaels also boasted a winning streak of six before bowing to another Class A team, Adrian. Paced by Gary Crowley, Dave Page, John Lefere, Tom Crowley, and Bill Devine, the Gaels broke two school records and beat arch-rival St. Mary's twice during regular season play. The season closed with a heartbreaking defeat in the closing seconds of the final game of district play, but the Gaels went down fighting all the way.

What is a cheerleader? At St. John's a cheerleader not only leads cheers, but leads the school in good example. Cheerleaders always seem to have such fun, but a lot of hard work and toil are requisites of a cheerleader's daily routine. This year the cheerleaders placed more emphasis on new and different cheers. Homecoming, the St. Mary's game, and all of the other football games which attributed to our undefeated season, the first in 43 years, together with one of the best basketball squads we've had in our history, have made the cheerleader's job one of great joy.

LEAVING

Reluctantly we leave the Senior Class to join the ranks of alumni. We then take all the wonderful memories we have of this year and leave all the joys, sorrows, laughs, tears, and wonderful times to you, the underclassmen—make the best of them.

The custom of choosing J-Boy and J-Girl has been carefully carried out by the class of '64. As a basis for election, we decided that the honor should fall on the two seniors who have proved to be the most outstanding representatives of our class in every respect. In other words we think they're "tops." We feel that no better tribute could be given to our fellow seniors, Bill Devine and Nancy Sullivan. Congratulations.

Class Flower--
Yellow Rose

Class Colors--
Powder Blue and Silver

Class Patron-- Queen of Peace

Class Motto--
It matters not how long you live-- but how.

Ask these twelve year students if they would like to do it again. First row: l. to r. J. Boland, M. Baker, D. Crego, C. Gennety, A. Cvengros. Second row: M. Chomic, F. Frybarger, F. Chase, J. Higgins. Third row: D. Dorian, J. Gurr, G. Crowley, T. Crowley, J. Prestler. Fourth row: J. Driscoll, B. Kestle, P. Booth, R. Lebel, D. Swartout, B. Devine.

All dressed up—no place to go.

La de da our Gaels are the best.

What ya doing?

12th string football team.

Candidates for Miss America.

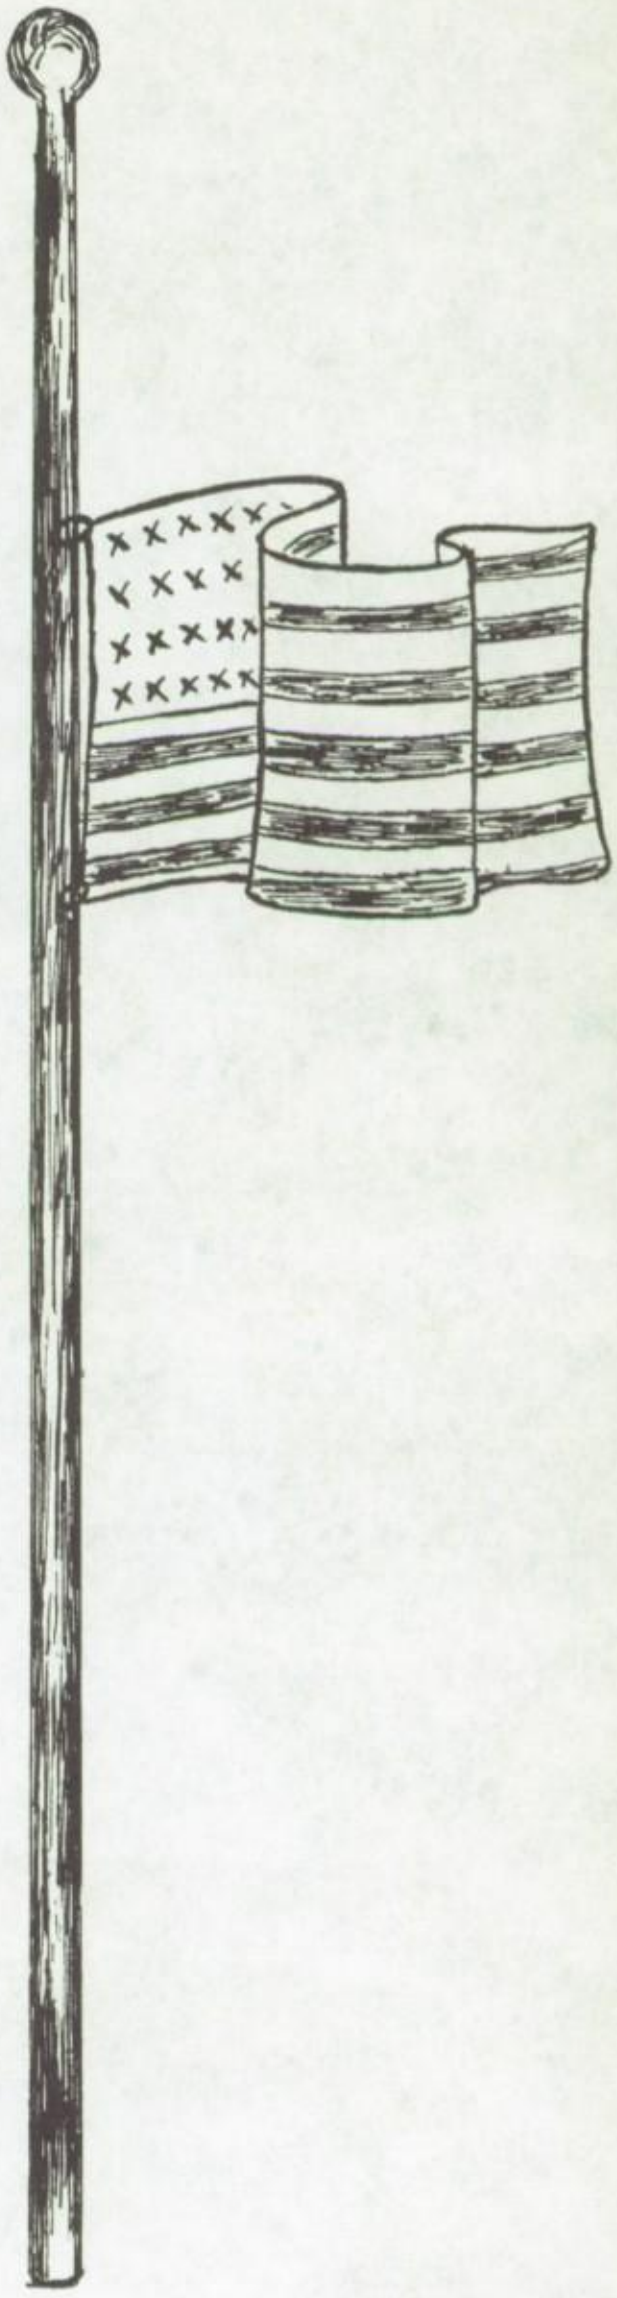
Who me? Complain??

We gotta win!

As we stand in our places to receive our diplomas, we, the senior class, cannot help seeing many thoughts of the past flash before our minds. These thoughts move from one thing to another, but they all center around two people, you Mom and Dad. Yes, you were there, you were always there when we needed you most, providing an encouraging smile, a sympathetic gesture, a pat on the back. But there is more, much more than this steady guidance which makes us so deeply indebted to you. Now we realize that without your patience, your protection, and especially your understanding, we would not be the kind of person we are today. And knowing that we will soon be on our own in the world makes us a little pensive, but with your expressive example to follow, we will be sure to attain the goals which are ours.

With love and thanks to Mom and Dad,

The Class of '64.



A man came, Sent by God
His Name was
John.
He came as a witness, To bear
Witness to the Light,
So that all might believe.

1964
Bluebook Staff

The 1964 Bluebook would like to take time out to express their gratitude to the persons who made it possible to put out the 1964 Bluebook. It never could have been done without the help—great or small, direct or indirect—of many helping hands. Among those that deserve special mention are: Our patrons, for helping to finance this publication; Dunhanna Studios for their valuable assistance in photography; Mr. Jim Spaulding, the publishers representative, through whom we came to be connected with Edwards Brothers Inc.; and our faculty, for their precious understanding that was necessary to complete this year's record at St. John High.

This then is the 1964 Yearbook, a book that we hope will be enjoyed, appreciated, perhaps even mocked or laughed at, but certainly noticed.

Mrs. Bert Tuttle
1964 Bluebook Advisor

Senior staff members are John Chrisman, Scott Rose, Anne O'Connell, Mrs. Tuttle, Nancy Sullivan, and Anne Lefere.

John:

Autographs

John:
To a real nut:
who knows Sid Luther real well. We've had a ball with you in school and I hope I
will have a lot more.
I hope your mother will have fun in Ireland:
"Pete"

John:
To a swell guy who
I will be my pal for the rest of your life. We have had lots of fun together doing unmentionable things.
Jim.

John:
So the fattest boy on earth. When one has such a beautiful sister one wonders how you could get a big nose like you. How are things at the tent factory where you buy your clothes
Guess who?
